Funding for Your Remembrance Project

Veterans Affairs Canada
Commemorative Partnership Program — Community Engagement

Does your branch, association, or community group have a remembrance idea? This federal program can help pay for it — and you apply yourselves, in your own organization's name.

AN EXAMPLE

A Legion branch builds a travelling display telling the stories of local Veterans, taken to area schools each November.
Project cost: $8,200 — design, printing, display cases, travel.
As a regional project, it could apply for up to $10,000.
An illustration only — every project is judged on its own merits.

WHO CAN APPLY — AND HOW MUCH

- Non-profit and for-profit organizations, municipalities, provinces and territories
- Local projects: up to $5,000 · Regional projects: up to $10,000
